About the International Order of the Rainbow for Girls

The International Order of the Rainbow for Girls (Rainbow) is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization that provides girls from ages 11 to 21 with a safe, fun, caring environment in which members take part in fun activities, make friends, travel, and serve their communities. Girls learn leadership, public speaking, citizenship, and valuable lessons and skills to help them succeed in life and careers. Younger girls, ages 7 to 11, can join Rainbow Pledge Groups and participate in fun activities with the older Rainbow Girls. Rainbow was founded in 1922, is headquartered in McAlester, Oklahoma, and has 850 assemblies located throughout the United States and in Aruba, Australia, Bolivia, Brazil, Canada, Germany, Italy, Japan, and the Philippines. For more information, visit www.goRainbow.org or call 800-843-4674.
